Provincial Government to "Drastically Reduce" Relief Monies to Municipalities

Provincial Government Believes Relief Rolls Should Be Greatly Decreased; Local Officials Issue Statements

Notification from the Provincial Government has been received by the Municipality of Crown and the Town of Lacombe regarding the proposed reduction of payments for relief purposes to the two municipalities. The circular states, in short, that relief in Alberta should be greatly reduced due to the fair crops and the good grain prices prevailing this year; that "Municipalities must be prepared to assume full responsibility for their indigents, including those who are unemployed." The letter, which is written over the typewritten signature of A. A. MacKenzie, commissioner of the Bureau of Relief and Public Welfare, states in another part: "It is not the wish of the Province at this time to withdraw all unemployment relief or agricultural assistance, but it is the intention of the Province to drastically reduce their grant, and it will, hereafter, only contribute to applications for assistance where a complete report definitely indicates justification."

In an interview with a representative of The Western Globe, O. W. Hueppelheuser, Reeve of the Municipal District of Crown, stated:

"Some time ago the Provincial Governmnet increased the Social Service Tax 50 per cent; then the grant for roads and bridges was withheld; following this the Municipal Districts were informed that the maintenance of all bridges within the boundaries of the Municipal District would be made a direct responsibility of the Municipal District; now it appears they wish to foist on, and increase the cost of, relief to the Municipal District. All these added expenses can mean only one thing—increased local taxation.

"I freely admit that relief is becoming more and more of a racket every year, in view of the fact that a recipient of relief is often given a job in preference to a man struggling to keep off the relief rolls. It is difficult to have relief recipients work out their relief, because of our extremely long winters and comparatively short summers.

"The whole thing figures out, that unless some form of centralized control of this problem is instituted, the whole question of relief will become even more of a national calamity than it is at present."

Statement by Mayor Jones

Mayor E. H. Jones of the Town of Lacombe, in a statement made to The Western Globe, said:

"While the council finds it expedient in necessitous cases to extend assistance under the unemployment scheme, I strongly incline to the opinion that the time has arrived when real property can no longer bear the burden of taxation arising out of the cost of social services, a tax from which the property owner derives no direct benefit.

"Throughout the depression, the owners of real property have been saddled with the costs of direct relief, a burden which, in my opinion, should have been assumed by the senior governments, as the causes are national in character and local authorities can in no way be blamed for the results.

"There would appear to be no good reason, in this district particularly, why relief costs should not be sharply lowered.

"I agree with the stand taken by the provincial relief authorities that individuals must now realize the responsibility of providing for themselves, a responsibility that no longer rests with their tax-paying neighbors."

120,000 Bushels Of Grain Shipped From Lacombe

Approximately one hundred cars of grain have left Lacombe and vicinity within the past month, according to figures received from the C.P.R. here.

Each car holds an average of 1200 bushels of grain, which figure out to a total shipment of 120,000 bushels from Lacombe and immediate vicinity.

Grain from the district continues to pour in to country elevators as farmers, taking advantage of the fine weather, rush through threshing operations in an endeavor to complete the harvest before the coming winter. Yields throughout are spotty, the coarse grains, barley and oats yield fairly well and the wheat doing poorly.

Garnet wheat is grading around 2 and 3 while other kinds are grading 2, 3 and 4. Pig weed, couch grass, wild oats and other weeds are evident in the various grains. Little of the wheat is grading damp, and the moisture content is much lower than it was two weeks ago.

Oats and barley are grading well, on the whole, according to local elevator men.

NOV. 1 IS FINAL DATE

Local taxpayers are reminded that taxes for the current year must be paid on or before Nov. 1 to take advantage of the 10 per cent discount.

Aberdeen Angus Calves Bought for Calf Clubs this Year

The Central Alberta Calf Club got away to a start for the 1937-1938 season when 60 head of Aberdeen Angus calves were distributed to members of the Lacombe and Red Deer clubs at the Red Deer Stock Yards, last Wednesday.

The calves, which were of a superior type and quality, were purchased by the committee from local breeders and from breeders at Stettler, Alix and Clive. The average weight of the calves was approximately 470 pounds.

Distribution was under the direction of the District Agriculturist, F. H. Newcombe, assisted by the club committees and H. G. Rogers of the Soldiers' Settlement Board an Mr. J. LeFrance.

While the drawing of numbers was completed on Wednesday, 12 calves will be brought in later to make up the full quota of 72 which comprises the membership list for the current year. The area covered by this club comprises the Penhold, Red Deer, Sylvan Lake, Bentley, Lacombe, Clive and Tees districts.

John Boode Suffers Gasoline Burns at Blackfalds

(From Our Own Correspondent)

BLACKFALDS—Suffering severe burns when he attempted to start a fire in his home with gasoline, John Boode had to spend a week in the hospital recovering from the effects recently. His clothing became ignited, and if it had not been for the prompt action of his brother in wrapping a blanket around him, his burns might well have been more serious.

D. McDonald New Bank Of Montreal Manager

Served Here Many Years Ago As Clerk and Gained Rapid Promotion

The recent appointment of Daniel McDonald as manager of the Bank of Montreal, succeeding S. J. Boyd, who is absent on sick leave, brings back to Lacombe one of its own sons.

Back in 1905, Mr. McDonald, on leaving the local school, entered the Merchants Bank of Canada (now for many years part of the Bank of Montreal) as a junior clerk, and the larger part of the first five years of his banking career was served here. In 1912 he was appointed accountant of the Medicine Hat branch.

Promotion rapidly followed, as after serving but two months as an accountant he was appointed manager of the Walsh, Alta., branch. During his career since then he has been in charge of branches at Rumsey, Munson, Donalda, Viking, Chauvin and Stony Plain, Alta., and more recently at Limerick, Maple Creek and Shaunavon, Sask.

Lacombe Swine Judging Team Cops First Place

Lacombe Cattle Judging Team Places Close Second to Winning Red Deer Pair

Lacombe teams placed first and second in two of the judging competitions held at the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, on Saturday, Oct. 23rd, no Lacombe team being entered in the third competition. These eliminations were held by the boys' and girls' clubs in Central Alberta, and the winners will go to Edmonton on Thursday, Oct. 28th, to compete against teams from Northern and Southern Alberta, the winners in each contest in Edmonton going to the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, to compete for the All-Canadian championships.

In the swine competition, the Lacombe judging team of John Morrison and Charles Blackmore copped top honors, with the Swalwell team second. H. E. Wilson and A. Newman had charge of this contest.

Grain Judging

The standing in the grain judging competition was: 1, Leslieville; 2, Katryn; 3, Wayne. Officials in charge of this competition were E. H. Buckingham of Edmonton and G. E. DeLong of Lacombe.

In the beef cattle competition, the Red Deer team, consisting of Bill Edgar and Allan Smith, annexed first place, with Roy Henderson and Ian Chessor of Lacombe a close second. The team which came from Scollard placed third. Those in charge of this competition were John Norquay of Edmonton, W. J. Elliott of Edmonton and F. H. Reed, superintendent, Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe.

Trained by F. H. Newcombe

It is rather significant that all three winning teams were trained by F. H. Newcombe, District Agriculturist, Red Deer.

Mrs. E. Rowland, Former Lacombe Resident, Dies

Mrs. Ed. Rowland, former resident of Lacombe and surrounding district, passed away suddenly at her home in Westfir, Oregon, on Oct. 12. Her death came as a distinct shock to her many friends and relatives living in this district.

Mrs. Rowland was born in 1885 in Prince Edward Island. She came west to Alberta in 1901 and in 1903 married Edgar Rowland. The newly-wedded couple took up their home at Mr. Rowland's farm in the Iowalta district, and before they left Alberta eight years ago, they lived in Spring Valley, Lacombe and other surrounding points.

Mrs. Rowland leaves to mourn her loss her husband; one son, Garnet, living in Westfir, and two grandchildren; four brothers, James, George and McNeil, and one sister, Mrs. D. M. Reeves.

Funeral services were held at Eugene, Oregon.

Close to $3,000 Loss in Fire at Bill's Coffee Shop Wednesday

Contents, Valued at $2500, Totally Destroyed; Approximately $500 Damage Done to Buildings, Owned by Mr. Hotson

Fire broke out in Bill's Coffee Shop and Confectionery early Wednesday morning, completely destroying the stock and contents valued at $2500 and damaging the building to the extent of approximately $500. The alarm was turned in at 7:30 in the morning, and the members of the fire brigade were prompt to turn out. Two lengths of hose, approximately 1000 feet in length, were stretched from the Royal Bank corner and the Tees corner, and water, with the addition of chemicals, was soon subduing the flames. It is evident that the fire broke out in the back of the building and quickly spread, the flames licking greedily up the back of the store and through to the front. Chemicals were used in the front of the store and water was played on the flames at the back.

From Leaky Pipe

It is thought the fire started from a leaky pipe in the gas stove in the back of the shop. Miss Georgia Bransager, who opened up the store shortly after seven, turned in the alarm to the telephone office.

Although the back part of the building was well alight, quick action on the part of the fire brigade, who played water on the roofs of the adjoining buildings, as well, was responsible for preventing the flames from spreading. The terrific heat burst the front windows and the inside of the store is a complete wreck.

Both the building, owned by George W. Hotson, and the contents were insured.

Men's Club Held First Regular Meeting Friday Night

Officers for the coming year were elected at the first meeting of the Men's Club held this term, at the Church Hall Friday night. An enthusiastic but small attendance turned out to vote in the following officers:

Dr. E. M. Sharpe, honorary president; Stewart Fraser, president; A. Cottrell, vice-president; B. Ford, secretary-treasurer; S. Chapman, chairman of the program committee; G. Sweet, chairman of the entertainment committee; D. Wilks, chairman of the refreshment committee; H. Sellers, chairman of the attendance committee.

Discussion took place on the providing of entertainment for the young men and women of the community. It was thought that it might be possible to obtain the Church Hall on Saturday nights for the purpose of holding dances, properly supervised by members of the Men's Club. A committee consisting of Messrs. Finlayson, DeLong and Wilks was appointed to interview the owners of the hall to ascertain for what purposes the hall might be used, and to report back at the next meeting.

W. J. Elliott, in charge of the Department of Agriculture Youth Movement program in Alberta, gave a very interesting talk, in which he described the objects and workings of the new movement.

It was decided to hold the meetings of the club on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in future.

Mrs. Cerveny Badly Injured by .22 Rifle Bullets

Mrs. J. E. Cerveny, who lives three miles west of Ponoka, lies in the Lacombe Hospital in a precarious state with two gunshot wounds in her chest. She was admitted to the hospital Sunday and has hovered between life and death since that time.

It is claimed that the wounds were self-inflicted. Her husband, out threshing, was coming in for dinner when Mrs. Cerveny sent the maid downstairs. When the maid came up, she saw Mrs. Cerveny staggering, with two .22 gunshot wounds in her left chest. She evidently aimed for the heart, but as far as is known, no vital organs were touched by the bullets.

Mr. Cerveny rushed the injured woman to the Lacombe Hospital, where she received medical attention.

No reason is known for the attempted suicide. Corporal Mathieson of the R.C.M.P. detachment, Red Deer, is in charge of the case. There will be no prosecution.

Mrs. Cerveny is 36 years of age.

Recipients Express Gratitude for Vegetables

Proving that "Love is reflected in love," and that this old world (fortunately) still has some of it left, is a letter of gratitude received on Wednesday by G. T. Jackson of the Central Relief Committee, from the Alberta Relief Commission, Drumheller, which reads as follows:

Dear Sir.—I have been instructed by the people of I.D. No. 276 who are unfortunate enough to be chargeable to relief of their appreciation and grateful thanks for the splendid tribute of potatoes and vegetables sent in to this district through the generosity of the farmers of your district.

We received a carload of 70,000 pounds, all in excellent condition and of a quality rarely excelled in this district. Some 900 men, women and children have received enough to give them a three months' supply, over and above this some 30 old people have benefitted also.

Due to drought, disease and hail, gardens suffered pretty badly, but where anyone on relief had enough of their own, they refused to accept any when approached and asked about it. This is evidence of the fine example of unselfishness that you and your neighbors set in sharing with the more unfortunate your surplus, and your action has left impressions more lasting than the benefits of the material goods in providing a mental tonic that brightens the blackness of compulsory destitution.

Thanking you and your committee and all the farmers who aided and helped, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

A. GRAY,
Alberta Relief Commission,
Drumheller, Alta.

Those who were kind enough to share in sending this carload of vegetables will no doubt remember the Biblical version that "It is more blessed to give than to receive," and their kindness has brought some happiness to those less fortunate than ourselves.

1936 Dividends Will be Paid Members of Central Alberta Dairy Pool if Debenture Issue of $100,000, Decided on at Meeting, is Successful

An endeavor will be made to raise $100,000 by way of debenture, it was decided at a delegates' meeting of the Central Alberta Dairy Pool, held in Alix Wednesday. The money will be used to pay off a capital loan amounting to $45,000 at the bank and $55,000 payable to members of the Co-operative for dividends for the year 1936. The motion embodying these decisions was carried almost unanimously.

A motion put by O. W. Hueppelheuser to provide for the raising of $45,000 by way of a mortgage on the Central Alberta Milk Condensery at Red Deer was also passed, so that, in the event of failure in selling the proposed debentures, it would be possible to obtain enough money to pay off the bank loan. This mortgage, however, will not be placed unless the debenture flotation is a failure.

A Stormy Session

Considerable discussion took place before these motions were finally passed. Personalities and many differences of opinion all tended at times to disrupt the meeting, and only the stellar work of J. M. Smith, who acted as peacemaker as well as chairman, kept the procedure orderly.

A motion to close up the Milk Condensery at Red Deer was defeated by a large majority.

The amendments to the constitution, for which purpose the meeting was primarily called, were not dealt with owing to the absence of a large number of delegates whose presence at the meeting was necessary before the constitutional amendments could be passed.

To Departmentalize Units

A motion to departmentalize all the various units of the Pool and make each one responsible for its own keep, was passed.

A motion put before the meeting to dispense with the Acme and Bowden creameries was defeated by an overwhelming majority.

The delegates' meeting was held following a directors' meeting which convened Tuesday, and the directors again assembled in meeting Wednesday night, October 27.

Applications for Amateur Contest Close November 3rd

A number of entries have been received for the annual Amateur Night to be held at the Central Alberta Pavilion on Nov. 11th, which is being sponsored by the local branch of the Canadian Legion. A number of enquiries have been made by prospective contestants as to whether or not they are eligible to compete.

To clarify any existing doubt, the Legion wishes to make it known that the contest is open to all comers, and anyone can enter, whether they live in the district or not. The event created a great amount of interest last year and brought out some splendid talent.

Don't forget that the closing date for entries is Wednesday, Nov. 3rd, so contestants are advised to register early. Application forms may be obtained from S. L. Warrior or the Western Globe, Lacombe.

Local Firemen to Start Check-up

The annual check-up by the local Fire Brigade around the business section will commence within the next two weeks. As has been done in the past, members of the brigade will inspect chimneys, stoves, and cleanliness of the various offices. All fire hazards will be carefully checked and removed where possibe.

Business men are asked to co-operate with the firemen in an attempt to keep local fire losses as low as possible.

C.G.I.T. Girls Conduct Service At St. Andrew's

Evening service at St. Andrew's United Church was conducted by the C.G.I.T. groups on Sunday, Oct. 24th. Bessie Biglands, president of the Seniors, officiated; the Scripture reading was taken by Miss Dorothy Carter, leader; invocation by Mrs. A. Newman, and the address, which included the story of the Feeding of the Five Thousand, was given by Clara Saunders.

A beautiful anthem, "Consider and Hear Me," was rendered by the Senior Choir. Following this service, a short ceremony depicting C.G.I.T. activities was given, with Mary Layton, representing Purity, as leader; Mabel Weeks, "Out-of-Doors"; Jean Wallace, "Health"; Evelyn Renschler, "Friends"; Nina Sage, "Intellect"; Mary Garvin, "Fun," and Doris Bradley, "Worship." This ceremony closed with the girl singing their theme song, "Follow the Gleam."

Proceeds From Rebekah Lodge Tea To Go to Hospital

Sponsored by Lacombe Rebekah Lodge No. 101, a delightful afternoon tea was held at the home of Mrs. U. E. Reeves on Saturday, October 23rd, the proceeds of which amounted to approximately $14, which will be used for purchasing supplies for the new Community hospital.

Mrs. W. Clark and Mrs. R. Paulsen presided at the bake table; Mrs. R. G. Gilmour and Miss E. E. Shaw poured tea, and others assisting the hostess were Mrs. E. A. Bowering, Mrs. F. Bach, Mrs. G. Brooks, Mrs. E. Mast, Mrs. K. Fystro and Mrs. C. E. Todd.

Paino selctions and lovely vocal solo and duet numbers were provided by Mrs. T. N. Lett and Mrs. N. N. Woody, whose musical contribution was an enjoyable feature of the occasion.

A New Tax Problem

THE recent circulars sent out by the Provincial Government, stating that they are about to "drastically reduce their grant" to the Municipalities and Towns throughout the Province for direct relief expenses does not come as a complete surprise. In the circular received by the offices of the Town of Lacombe and the Municipal District of Crown, it states, in part :

"We feel that the time has arrived when the individual must depend upon his own resources to provide for himself and his family. This can be done if the individual residing in a rural municipality would make a sustained effort and realize that the responsibility of looking after him no longer rests with his tax-paying neighbor."

This is sound, fine logic as far as it goes, but does it go far enough? It is stated in another section of the circular that "During the year 1937, fair crops have been produced in a large portion of the province and the prices received therefor are equal to, if not greater, than those received during the average years prior to 1930."

Again this is a correct, sound statement, but again we feel it does not go far enough. We all agree that direct relief has been a curse on the tax-payers since its inception on a large scale in 1930. There have been abuses of the "dole," as there are abuses of all social services. The taxpayer has paid over his money and has received no concrete value for his expenditure, but at the same time, the unemployed must be fed. If the Provincial Government is to withdraw, or "drastically reduce" its grant, the Municipalities and Towns will have to bear an even larger burden than they carry at present.

The financial statements of the Municipal District of Crown and the Town of Lacombe show an expenditure for the year 1936 of $2,482.84 and $1,020.94 respectively for direct relief. These figures do not include hospital bills, medical fees, old age pensions or Mothers' Allowances.

The Provincial and Dominion Governments during that year combined to pay $2,453.94 and $1,084.90 respectively to the two municipalities as their share towards financing direct relief in this district. Should the Provincial Government do away with or "drastically reduce" their financial assistance, the cost of relief to the Municipality of Crown and the Town of Lacombe would be increased any percentage up to 100 per cent or possibly greater.

Logical reasoning will prove to tax-payers that only two alternatives are left to the councils. Either the relief recipient rolls are reduced in number, or else taxation must be increased to meet the demand of the heavier payments.

It is left squarely up to the relief recipient and the Provincial Government. Either the present relief recipients get out and rustle in an honest attempt to provide for their own living, and their dependents—and by so doing reduce the relief list—or else the Provincial Government must continue to open the purse strings to aid the municipalities that MUST provide food, shelter and clothing for their unemployed residents. It would be grossly unfair to the smaller municipalities to be left to shoulder the heavy burden of relief on the proposed scale.

Poppy Day November 6

LAST year, Canada remembered her war dead in so inspiring a fashion at Vimy—the memorial itself, the Pilgrimage of veterans and mothers and wives, the participation of the King, the President of the French Republic, the Prime Minister—that every Canadian must feel pride in a duty so wholly and beautifully done.

Some expression of that feeling is very likely to be made by Canadians on November 11th this year, when, with the appeal of the Poppy Fund, the opportunity is given to render some measure of gratitude to those who, one might say, fell in the war but did not die.

For that, in effect, is what happened to many thousands of Canadian young men. Wounded, damaged in body and spirit, these multitudes of our fellow men have survived twenty years of pain and handicap, of distress, frustration and disappointment in the daily race of life, regardless of all the help government and municipalities can devise for them.

On the base of the indescribably beautiful memorial on Vimy Ridge, there are carved in the solid stone, the names of the 11,283 Canadian soldiers whose bodies have never been found, whose names do not appar on a headstone in any of the numerous Canadian cemeteries scattered over France and Flanders. Thus no man is forgotten. The Poppy Fund, insofar as the funds it can raise permit, has attempted to see that no man of those living be forgotten. The things government cannot undertake to supply—clothing, furniture, the simple amenities of comfort in a home—are the routine provisions of the Poppy Fund. It also meets certain kinds of emergencies, medical and domestic. Its work is practically all voluntary. It tries to be, on behalf of its countless contributors on Poppy Day, the good Samaritan to the forgotten fringes of the veteran problem.

The Canadian Legion which conducts the campaign in Canada is only one unit of the British Empire Service League, which on November 11th, in its world-wide associations in the British Empire, is selling poppies to fellow Britishers in every corner of the globe. The British peoples have their various national holidays and red letter days, but in the gift you make on Poppy Day, you are sharing in a duty universally British.

Lacombe's Poppy Day is November 6th.

Through the Eyes of a Country Woman

By BRIDGET

This seems an opportune time to think seriously about immigration, for you cannot pick up a paper without seeing some reference to the subject. I quote, "Great schemes of Empire development were envisaged at today's sitting of the Empire Migration Conference." This conference was sitting in London during the second week of this month, and although it is not an official body, it was attended by very influential men. The Premiers of Saskatchewan, Manitoba, New Brunswick and British Columbia have all sent letters, approving tentatively of the idea (brought forward at the conference) of British migration to Canada. But it seems to me dreadful that Canada was not even represented at the conference. Surely we are the most interested party. Don't you think we should keep our eyes open on these doings overseas?

One high official, Sir John Marriott, was quoted as saying that the unemployed feared migration and were "not willing to give up substance (unemployment benefits) for shadow." Haven't we enough unemployed? According to last week's statistics, "Alberta jobless weekly total was boosted." It revealed 9207 unemployed now, right when threshing is still in full swing in many parts. The unemployed total last winter reached the amazing figure of 11,000 so, relatively, we can expect, even more this year. Surely this is not he class of immigrant that Alberta needs, or can absorb.

That we need British immigration cannot be denied, and its realization is a step in the right direction. But to start a wholesale scheme of migration of British subjects without means, would be only adding a further burden to an already overburdened people.

The Empire Settlers brought out about ten years ago prove that limited assistance does not go far enough.

It is a serious problem, and concerns each one of us, especially in the rural areas. If past (and present) haphazard methods of bringing in additional population are allowed to continue (methods whose chief objectives are apparently to put money in the pockets of land-owners and transportation systems, regardless of the effect on the existing population), Alberta, in time, will be a collection of little settlements—German, Swedish, Russian, Ukrainian, Dutch, etc., etc.—all with their individual thoughts, habits and aged customs. The youth of these countries would, if left by themselves, speedily adopt the customs and culture of their chosen country; the older generation, however, is anxious to preserve something of the customs and culture of their native lands (and no wonder, for what have we of our own to offer them?) and build their own churches (with their attendant organizations), and in some cases, even their own schools, and by so doing, unintentionally isolate themselves and their children into little "foreign" settlements.

At this point it would not be amiss to remind ourselves that under present conditions by 1972 the Anglo-Saxon population of Canada will amount to only 40 per cent of the inhabitants of the Dominion.

If we study this problem earnestly, we will discover what a huge amount of difficulties there are to be faced.

General Hornby of Lethbridge seems to be the only man with a definite plan of immigration; one may or may not agree with his ideas but at least he offers a certain specified line of action that could be taken.

However, the problem is there, and we should not allow ourselves to be mere pawns in this scheme for the peopling of Canada. It is a very live issue, and we must face up to it, and discover, if possible, the best answer, for it vitally affects our boys and girls. This is one of those things that "just happen" to a country because the people, although dimly aware that certain vague moves are being made, take no thought until they suffer from something that has been done by those in authority, and then it is too late to exert the pressure that organized and informed public opinion can bring to bear on its representatives.

By the way, speaking of boys and girls, as we were a moment ago, is there something wrong with them, or is there something very wrong with the present High School curriculum? Why should students have such mountains of homework that they have to study until 10 o'clock and later at night? It is neither good for a child's eyes or health. Further, so much intensive "cramming" will not leave a lasting knowledge with any child; in a few years it will all be gone. Wouldn't it be a sounder policy to impart more essential and practical knowledge, in not such large doses, and teach it so thoroughly that it would be imprinted on the young mind "for keeps"?

The phrase, tickled to death," originated in a Chinese torture, when victims had the soles of their feet tickled until they died in an agony of laughter.

"Hey, Mike," said a workman to the other atop, "don't come down on that ladder on the north corner. I took it away."

Do You Know?

FRED PERRY,

one-time broncho buster, railroad hand, drayman and miner? Mr. Perry, born on a farm in Ontario in 1869, came west to Calgary in 1891. He worked for some time on a steel gang on the building of the Calgary-Edmonton railroad and the Calgary-Macleod line. The winter of 1892 he spent by working at Canmore in the coal mines, becoming a broncho buster the following year.

For six years, Mr. Perry worked at this trade, and in the winter of 1897 he broke 300 horses destined to be sent to the Klondike, at the time of the big gold rush.

He went back to railroading in 1899 and in 1903 he left this job to take over a dray business in Cranbrook, B.C. He sold out his interest in 1911 and in 1912 came to Clive, where he bought out the livery business of J. T. Reynolds. Four years later he sold to Harry Williams, coming to Lacombe, where he entered the same business, buying out Charlie Curtis.

In 1919 he became the local manager of the Imperial Oil Co., and occupied this position until 1933, when he was pensioned off.

In 1900, while railroading, he married Miss Mary Bowtell of Lacombe, the Rev. E. Michener (whom many old-timers will remember), officiating at the ceremony. His wife died in October, 1934, leaving four children—three girls and one boy. Mr. Perry now resides in Lacombe, retired.

Hospital to Be Finished In Two Weeks

The Lacombe and District Community Hospital will be completed in about two weeks, according to the foreman for the Poole Construction Co., in charge of construction. The floors are laid, the tile in the operating room and sterilizing room has been completed, doors are in place and only the finishing touches remain to be made.

Lt. Governor Acted Wisely In Withholding Assent

By W. M. DAVIDSON

The Province of Alberta is fortunate at this time in having as its Lieutenant-Governor a man of unusual capacity, unquestioned honesty, good judgment and undoubted courage. For the first time in recent years in Canada, a man in such a position has been forced to face serious constitutional problems.

A Governor is in the unfortunate position of being unable to speak for himself or to defend his own actions. Under such conditions it is generally expected that the Premier shall speak for the Governor, or if that is impossible that the Premier shall deal with the issue in a judicial manner with the utmost fairness and honesty.

In discussing the conduct of the Governor for withholding assent to the Press Bill, Mr. Aberhart in his Sunday address in Calgary on October 9, according to the report in the Calgary Albertan said, "even if our Lieutenant-Governor should believe our newspapers should be allowed to print untruths."

Contemptible Insinuation

That is the most contemptible insinuation, based on a palpable untruth, and presented in most cowardly fashion, that has ever been made, in my knowledge, by any premier of a Canadian province.

The Press Bill, let it be understood, provides that newspaper publishers must print in their paper free of cost, any statement whatever—any propaganda, argument, misrepresentation or untruth—that the Chairman of the Social Credit Board may choose to submit. In case of refusal, or contravention of any of the rules laid down by the act, the government may not only suspend any newspaper, but prevent the person writing the same from making any statement or writing again in any other newspaper.

Not only does the government plan to force its unpaid campaign literature upon the editor with threat of driving him out of business, but it does not, cannot relieve the newspapers for responsibility for criminal libel for the very material which the government itself supplies.

That is the substance of the bill which the Lieutenant-Governor withheld, which was followed by the vile allegation by the Premier.

Has Undoubted Right

The Lieutenant-Governor has the undoubted right to withhold assent to any bill presented to him, just as the Governor-General and the King have similar authority. It is true that the King and Canadian Governor-General in recent years (and the previous Alberta Governors) have not used such powers. Whether the King or Governor-General would be justified in withholding assent to legislation depriving British subjects of such fundamental liberties as free resort to courts, or the freedom of speech, is a matter of opinion, which is of mere academic interest, because it is not within the realm of possibility that such legislation will ever be submitted to the King or Governor-General or to a Lieutenant-Governor, except by an Aberhart government.

Whether the King or Governor would be justified in such a course, if it could be imagined, would depend upon the reasonable probability that such legislation was approved by the people. In this particular instance in Alberta, it may be noted that not only was the limitation of the freedom of the press never mentioned at the last election, but the suggestion was not generally approved even by the more ardent Social Crediters when submitted to the members in party conventions.

Under such circumstances, the Governor would have been justified in refusing consent to the legislation on the ground that the people had not voted for it and it was not readily to be conceived that a free people would vote for curtailment of such fundamental liberties, and he could not believe such possible without further evidence.

Position Is Unique

In one respect the position of the Lieutenant-Governor is quite unique and differs from that of the King. "The King can do no wrong" is a well-known saying which means that any enactment to which the King affixes his signature in regular manner is law and cannot be question by the courts.

But the Lieutenant-Governor can do wrong and he does do wrong when he signs any enactment beyond the powers of the Province, and as such it may be declared invalid by the courts. For such reason the Governor should and does assure himself that all legislation that he signs is within the powers of the Province and is constitutional.

And what machinery does he use to get such assurance?

He consults the highest legal adviser of the Crown.

And who is that legal adviser? The Attorney-General.

And who is Attorney-General? William Aberhart, a man who is not a lawyer and has less legal information and constitutional knowledge than the Governor himself.

No person in all Alberta needing legal advice, even if it were no more serious than on a charge of the violation of the dog by-law, would be so foolish as to entrust his case with one who had no knowledge of law.

Desires Better Advice

Is it surprising then that the Lieutenant-Governor in facing legislation which deprives the people of the Province of their fundamental liberties—legislation never demanded by or suggested to the people of the province—should be determined to get sounder advice on the matter and reserve it for the consideration of the Federal government?

TENS of thousands of Canadian farms and homes benefit from first mortgage loans made possible by the accumulated savings of Life Insurance policyholders.

For every borrower, there are six thrifty people who supply the necessary funds.

This fact affords a striking illustration of the "double duty" performed by Life Insurance dollars. Not only do they ensure financial security for the men, women and children of Canada, but they also help to build and finance their farms and homes.

Life Insurance companies exercise the greatest care in the selection of properties upon which mortgage loans are made. To safeguard the savings of policyholders, security of principal and interest is and must always be the first consideration.

"Disgraceful Incompetence" Road Probe Verdict

By T. B. WINDROSS

EDMONTON. — Political warfare in Alberta during the past week has been more or less static and disinteresting, although there have been a few enlivening incidents to keep the public from succumbing to ennui.

The voice of Premier Aberhart has been heard roaring its oft-repeated defiance of the "financial hounds" who "bark and bite" since last this article was writen, but that is getting to be an old tale by now.

Two very significant events, however, took place in connection with the government's record which are worth mention. One was the surrender of the Premier to the popular outcry when on Thursday he abouteaced from his refusal to reveal the text of the Lunney Commission report on the highway inquiry.

Disgraceul Incompetence

The report of Mr. Justice Lunney revealed disgraceful incompetence and wasteful expenditure of the public funds in connection with the administration of the public works department. It revealed that the province, aside from the above matters, had been deprived of more than $100,000 for its roads because Hon. W. A. Fallow failed to meet the conditions that could have been met, which were laid down by the Dominion government.

It now remains to be seen how consistent Premier Aberhart is going to be in his method of dealing with his cabinet ministers. When, in his opinion, Mr. W. N. Chant, then Minister of Agriculture, did not show sufficient "aggressiveness and efficiency," he was invited in the most autocratic manner to resign. Now, Mr. Fallow has been declared guilty of incompetence and neglect in his department by a more competent judge than Premier Aberhart. What will the Premier do?

Committed for Trial

The second event of interest was the preliminary trial of G. F. Powell, expert adviser of the Aberhart government, and of J. H. Unwin, government whip in the Legislature, on charges of seditious libel, seditious libel knowing it to be false, and of counselling to murder. The hearing was held before Magistrate A. H. Gibson in the Edmonton police court and both men were committed on the evidence presented to appear at the next sitting of the Supreme Criminal Court on November 8.

Evidence given by Unwin in the trial of Powell showed that he had received the "copy" of the pamphlet complained of, entitled "Bankers' Toadies," and counselling to "Exterminate Them," from Mr. Powell, thus connecting the English expert with the case.

Matters relating to the three bills now before the Ottawa cabinet for disposal are not complete at the time this is written, but it is clear that the Dominion government has been bombarded with letters from individual Social Creditors, demanding that "Alberta be left alone." On the other hand, large numbers of public bodies have written to the Ottawa government, demanding that Alberta be dealt with as a part of the Dominion of Canada and not as "left alone."

Comedy and Drama at Avalon Thursday; Fight Pictures Start Monday

A technicolor picture, "The Garden of Allah," starring Marlene Dietrich and Charles Boyer, appears at the Avalon Theatre this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, together with Joe E. Brown in "Polo Joe." "The Garden of Allah" is another outstanding feature, with beautiful desert scenery, a touching love story and outstanding acting.

Joe E. Brown needs no introduction to the movie-going public. His show, "Polo Joe," is a mirth-provoking, side-aching comedy portraying the inimitable comedian at his best.

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the famous Louis-Farr fight pictures are being shown. Fifteen rounds of fistic battle that turned the sport world upside down are shown from ringside seats. You can hear every blow and watch every movement. It was an outstanding fight, and Dr. Moore, proprietor of the theatre, assures us that the pictures are just as outstanding.

WHEAT SURPLUS

Argentina's exportable wheat surplus is around 10 million bushels compared with 16 million bushels at this time last year.

Spruceville

SPRUCEVILLE.—It was much regretted that the Spruceville chicken supper had to be postponed, but threshing around this district was all the farmers had time for. Also, it was noted that the hospital auxiliary was putting on a dance in town on Friday. Anyway, the ladies have decided to hold it on Friday night, Nov. 5th, so roll up in your hundreds. We will be ready for you. There will be a dance afterwards.

Mr. Meinzinger of Chatham, Ont., was a fleeting visitor here on Tuesday. He lived here, 10 miles southwest of Lacombe, for many years, and he made a record dash around the neighborhood renewing old friendships. He was accompanied by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Patterson of Leedale.

The Rev. Malefyt of Edmonton will be at the Dutch church next week-end.

On Friday, Mrs. O. S. Young and Mrs. Laura Young took Mr. and Mrs. Young, Sr., to Red Deer to visit with the Bert Gibsons and Geordie Ormes before returning to Guelph, Ont., leaving for their destination on Tuesday.

Books by Charles Dickens were the cause of many reforms being made in England.

FEED GRAINS SCARCE

LONDON. — Supplies of feed grain in Europe have been reduced to low levels and this year's crop of rye, barley and oats is definitely below average. Because of this European importers of feed grains will have to dpend on non-European and Russian supplies. This situation has resulted in curtailment in hog production and the general effect on the livestock indusry is unfavorable.

Graham's Dispersion Sale

OF ACCREDITED REGISTERED

ABERDEEN ANGUS CATTLE

Will be held at the farm of GEO. A. GRAHAM, 3 MILES WEST and 2 MILES NORTH OF BENTLEY, ALBERTA, on

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5th

COMMENCING AT 1:00 O'CLOCK SHARP

41 HEAD OF CATTLE, including 21 head of Cows and Heifers, 13 Calves and 7 Bulls. For this sale, Mr. Graham has listed his entire herd, consisting of 21 head of Cows and Heifers, 13 head of Calves, 6 head of Rising Two-year-old Bulls and the present Herd Bull—Favorite Mac of Aberlour No. 41226.

All of the Females in the sale are of the most popular breeding, exceptionally good individuals, and consist of 7 Blackbirds, 7 Prides and 7 Mellonie Barbaras. These Cows are all Re-bred and believed to be Safe in Calf to the service of Favorite Mac of Aberlour. The 13 Calves are out of the above mentioned Cows and sired by Favorite Mac of Aberlour and Bar Laddie No. 50393.

Six head of rising Two-Year-Old Bulls are all sired by Bar Laddie and are real herd bull prospects. In fact they are the top six Bulls of Mr. Graham's 1936 Calf Crop and are good enough to stand at the head of a real herd of Angus Females, both from a breeding and individual standpoint. The Females listed are all sired by such well-bred Bulls as Buxom Jr. No. 26266, Blackcap of Heatherbrook No. 35016, Prince Marshall 9th (by Prince Marshall 7th), and Mac of Aberlour.

INFORMATION REGARDING SIRES

Buxom Jr. 26266 was bred by Jules Tudor and Sons of Holbrook, Iowa. Was imported in 1920 along with 5 head of Cows which established the foundation for the present herd.

Blackcap of Heatherbrook 35016 was bred by Thomas Henderson and Son of Lacombe. Was herd sire in the Graham herd for three years and was sold to head the herd at the Lacombe Experimental Station in 1928.

Prince Marshall 9th No. 38791 was bred by the Hendersons and sired by Prince Marshall 7th, by Earl Marshall.

Favorite Mac of Aberlour 41226 was sired by Middlebrook Prince 33rd No. 32553, the sire of many winners at the Royal Show at Toronto.

The 7 head of McHenry Barbaras listed are as follows—Two head of 2-year-old Heifers; 2 Yearling Heifers; 1 Bull and 1 Heifer Calf and the old Cow herself. These Heifers are real show and breeding prospects and would be a valuable addition to any herd of Angus cattle, anywhere.

This herd has been established for almost a quarter of a century and during all this time Mr. Graham has used only the best herd sires obtainable.

The herd has been fully accredited for the past 10 yrs. and there has never been a reactor. Mr. Graham has rented his farm and for lack of accommodation he finds it absolutely necessary to disperse this long established herd of most valuable breeding cattle. Write for Catalogue and arrange to attend this sale with the assurance that these cattle will please, both from the breeding and the individual standpoint.

Purchases for Rail Shipment will be loaded on cars at Bentley Free of Charge. Bentley is located 14 miles West of Lacombe on Gravel Highway. For Catalogue address Geo. A. Graham or C. F. Damron, Bentley, Alta.

60 HEAD—45 FEMALES, 15 BULLS

A very select offering of exceptionally good young cattle in good breeding condition, and guaranteed breeders. The 45 females are practically all young and sired by such well-known bulls as Prince Domino 25th, No. 67584, and Brummel Domino No. 70525, 1643503. Prince Domino 25th was sired by Prince Domino 9th, by Prince Domino—bred by W. A. Crawford-Frost, Nanton, Alta.; Brummel Domino, sired by Don Domino, by Domino—bred by Fred Chandler, Chariton, Iowa.

All of the cows and heifers in the sale of breeding age are bred and believed to be safe in calf to Mr. Broderson's present herd sires: Columbus Domino 97065, bred by Mr. Claude Gallinger, Tofield, Alta., and Leedale Domino 93085, bred by Mr. Broderson. The 15 head of young bulls are sired by these two bulls, and are a good useful lot and right in every way.

This sale offers an excellent opportunity to the farmers and breeders who have learned the lesson (that common cattle do not pay) to add to an established herd or lay the foundation for a herd that will undoubtedly prove a very good investment in the future. These Cattle are all T.B. Bentley

(From Our Own Correspondent)

BENTLEY.—The pupils of the primary and intermediate rooms of the Oxford School enjoyed a two-day holiday last week while their teachers, Miss E. M. Skoedopole and H. A. Wilkie, attended the teachers' convention in Red Deer.

The carload of vegetables shipped from Bentley last week for the drought area was sent to Coronation. Rev. C. A. Warren was in charge.

Miss Florence Shewan of Calgary is spending a week's vacation with her mother, Mrs. E. C. Shewan.

Miss Peggy Gibson was an Edmonton visitor over the week-end.

Mrs. J. A. Patrick and daughters, Lily and Irene, and Mrs. Hazel Garries spent last week-end at Kelsey with Mrs. Garries' mother, Mrs. Nelson.

Sunny Crest Specs

By SPY

SUNNY CREST. — Threshing is in full swing again. Given a short time, all will be threshed in due time, but the clouds hovering above on Monday and Tuesday looked like snow and the farmers were saying, "I wish I was through threshing."

Miss Connie Carter has located a permanent boarding place now and she expects to stay at the home of McNeil's, just across the road from the school. Miss Carter seems to be giving satisfaction as teacher in our district. She has arranged a system whereby the children are taking care to keep their books in the desks orderly, the cloak room tidy and each child to be washed and brushed neatly. In this way the week's winner has his or her name on the "Honor Roll." Opposite the "Honor Roll" is sketched on the blackboard a neatly fenced "Pig Pen."

Imagine a child's dislike to find himself in the "Pig Pen." There is also the "Black List" for other misdemeanors.

Church and Sunday School as usual next Sunday, which is Temperance Day. Temperance lesson will be given by Rev. F. G. Mathews.

Lacking a minister for Sunny Crest, Mr. Mathews has been doing his best to carry on a Sunday School and preaching service in our district. Miss Carter has been capably helping as superintendent since her arrival. There has arisen, however, an occasion wherein Mr. Mathews has decided to ask by vote on Sunday, whether the organization wishes him to carry on for the coming season or whether it desires a younger man for the work. Come on Sunday if you would like to express your opinion on the matter.

The Sunbeams met last Friday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. E. Dole, and worked and sewed on the outfit they are getting ready for a needy ten-year-old girl, eldest of eight in a family. Any donations of old clothes are welcome. These are washed and re-made into serviceable apparel.

Some cars are being traded in for newer ones. Les Saunders has a fine looking Chevrolet and we hear that E. Gottschlick has a Dodge. H. Binning, of the Binning and Taylor threshing outfit, which is in our neighborhood, has an Oldsmobile.

Miss Betty Saunders is home from a visit with friends living just north of Sylvan Lake.

We hear that Cecil Taylor has been having some bad luck—that the hopper he was using when he was hauling out his grain as he threshed, burst, and all the grain spilled on the ground; also that in hauling to the elevator at Aspen his truck broke down.

Program Enjoyed at Fairview Chicken Supper Friday Night

(From Our Own Correspondent)

FAIRVIEW.—Once again our annual chicken supper has come and gone. That there should be so many wonderful cooks all in one community is a marvel indeed! The program was enjoyed by all, and to the artists who took part we are very grateful.

Cameron Fraser and J. N. B. MacDonald played for us; Miss Kay Craigen and Mrs. L. O. J. Flewelling sang a duet; Mrs. Hugh Rowland gave a solo; Miss Edith Clague rendered selections on her guitar and Cameron Fraser gave a fine violin solo.

A walking cane, donated to the Ladies' Aid by Cameron Fraser, was auctioned off by Clyde Flewelling in his usual capable manner. The winning ticket for the rug, drawn for by Mr. Butcher, went to Mrs. A. Wills of Morningside.

Morningside

(From Our Own Correspondent)

MORNINGSIDE.—The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Cecil Lewis last Thursday, with a splendid attendance. The president, Mrs. Chesney, presided.

The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by a Scripture lesson and the Lord's Prayer in unison. After a short business period, the first chapter of the study book ("The New Church Faces a New World") was dramatized by the president and several members of the society.

A very pleasant feature of the meeting was a talk by Mrs. Hume on the work carried on by the W.M.S. in one of the large churches in Pittsburgh, Pa. Dainty refreshments were served. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charlie Lewis.

The teacher, Miss Algar, attended the convention which was held in Red Deer last Thursday and Friday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

At all Christian Science churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Everlasting Punishment." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (Lamentations 3:39, 40). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 22): "Justice requires reformation of the sinner. Mercy cancels the debt only when justice approves."

Gull Lake

(From Our Own Correspondent)

GULL LAKE. — Mrs. George Leiske had just returned from a visit with her father, at Jamestown, North Dakota, when she received the sad news of his death.

Miss Nancy Shewan was a visitor in the district recently. She is attending Camrose Normal School.

Dr. Little and Nurse B. Allyn were visitors at the school last week to innoculate children against diphtheria and scarlet fever. The next visit will be made on October 27.

Attends Convention

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dowling and Helen were visitors in Lacombe over the week-end. Mr. Dowling also attended the Teachers' Convention at Red Deer.

Threshing is in full swing. The grain is turning out well and seems to have weathered the storm nicely.

Dayton Wareham has built a nice addition to his house, with a full basement. Some finishing work has yet to be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hancher and Mr. and Mrs. Roe Hancher and babies Patricia and Roberta were visitors at the home of E. W. Dowling recently.

Donning Winter Coats

We see the rabbits are donning their winter overcoats; the geese have gone south by the thousands—all of which suggests that Old Man Winter is just around the corner.

Miss Mildred Moore, who has been working in Lacombe, is home again.

Tees Tattle Tales

By TATTLER

TEES.—During the past week the Tees high school basketball team defeated Mirror twice. Going to Mirror first, they cleaned up by a score of 25 to 7, and in the return game they again won by a margin not so big, 19 to 5. In other fixtures gone by, the team defeated Big Valley and lost to Stettler.

A small contingent of Teesites took in the chicken supper at Nebraska. By their contented and filled-out appearances, they must have enjoyed the many different foods prepared by the good ladies of that district.

Mrs. W. Holsworth is up and around again after her severe cold. Her mother, Mrs. Norton of Benalto, came over to look after her and pay a visit.

Mrs. Montgomery, who has been under the weather for several weeks, is improving slowly.

Chicken Supper Friday

The Ladies' Aid is busy these days making final arrangements for the big chicken supper Friday night. There are also a few things being disposed of, which will be drawn for on that night. A fan quilt, one of the items with the names of the donors embroidered on each square, has still two squares blank, and no person seems anxious to fill them in, as those who are left like to know who they will be placed next to on the same quilt.

This week should see the final threshing jobs completed, thus possibly ending one of the longest harvests for many years.

TAXES WORK HARDSHIP ON SMALL BUSINESSES

The "Undistributed Profits" tax of the Roosevelt administration in the United States has been assailed by thousands of independent oil jobbers as a measure to throttle and kill small business.

Without trying to see a devil behind every stump, there is occasion for some thought on the much talked-of question of profits, particularly profits of established business industries.

All businesses grow and should grow, out of profits. Most small businesses start on a shoe-string and grow entirely out of profits. It is true that for the dollars invested in the first place most small businesses that get anywhere make what the reformers condemn as "inordinate" percentage of profits. But what of it?

No intelligent investor would even think of "investing" in a small business so where is a small business man going to get the capital that he needs in which to grow and improve, except out of his own profits" And if these profits are a normal "six per cent" on the "investment," how is he ever going to get anywhere because of the small amount in dollars invested?

MANY ACCIDENTS OCCUR AT NIGHT

Warning of the dangers of night driving and the need of using every precaution in the interests of safety, is fitting at this season.

It has been estimated that nearly 60 per cent of all motor fatalities occur at night.

It is a well-known fact that the night accidents are the serious ones. As a matter of fact, official studies have revealed that one accident in 20 which occurs at night is fatal, compared with a ratio of one in 40 for daylight accidents.

At this time it is well to have headlights and other car equipments thoroughly tested, according to officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

Taking of proper precautions at this time may well mean the avoidance of troubles later on.

Campaigns for safe driving are al. having beneficial results but a fundamental factor after all is the sincere interest and wholesome co-operation of the individual driver.

Clive

(From Our Own Correspondent)

CLIVE. — If the fine weather keeps up, threshing will be nearly completed this week.

Three carloads of people from Clive attended the Sunday School rally held at the United Church in Bentley on Oct. 26.

A. Heald and R. N. Longstreet made a business trip to Eckville on Monday.

Mrs. D. W. Wilson and son Douglas and sister, Mrs. Northcott, motored to Edmonton, where they spent a few days, early this week.

On Saturday, Oct. 23, D. Hudkins produced a pint of ripe strawberries, which he picked from the garden on his farm, three miles southeast of Clive. Can the Tees Tattle Tales beat that?

W. C. Bachor has moved his family from Red Deer and will occupy the Monson house here. Bill is again running the creamery full blast and is welcomed back.
